On Monday, March 13, at 6:08 p.m. an officer was dispatched to the Grapevine Police Department for a report of a missing person.

A woman stated that 24-year-old Tori Golka of Irving was supposed to pick up her son, but never showed up. Golka had been at her boyfriend's apartment in Grapevine earlier that day while the child was with relatives.

Although no foul play was suspected, family members were concerned.

Police tried calling Golka's cell phone, but the calls went straight to voicemail. Several welfare checks were made throughout the week, but Golka was not home.

On Sunday, March 19, Golka walked into the Portland, Texas Police Department. Golka told police she had learned she was reported missing, and wanted to let them know she was safe.

There are no criminal charges pending at this time.
